- 4.6 In the event of rejection, the processor shall inform the applicant via email, providing the reasons for the decision.
- 4.7 The accountant prepares an invoice in the accounting system and issues it within 1 working day.
- 4.8 If the invoice is not paid by the deadline, the accountant will send a reminder to the customer. If the invoice is not paid within one month, the processor closes the procedure.
- 4.9 Once the invoice has been paid, the processor enters the identity permit data into the access systems and prints the identity permits. The applicant will be notified of the completion of the identity permit within 5 working days of payment of the invoice.
- 4.10 With the purpose of verifying the user's identity the person's name, personal identification code, photograph and company name are printed on the identity permit.
- 4.11 The identity permit is issued on working days from 9.00 to 15.00 in the office building of AS Tallinna Sadam (Sadama 25, Tallinn), unless otherwise agreed.

5 Validity of identity permit

- 5.1 You can apply for access rights to an identity permit for up to 1 year at a time. For renewal, the applicant submits a new application. Upon renewal, a new identity permit is not issued, but the person's access rights are extended.
- 5.2 If necessary, the data of the vehicles with which access to the port area is required can be changed free of charge. The applicant sends the information in writing by e-mail security@ts.ee, the processor changes the data of the vehicles related to the identity permit in the access systems.
 - 5.2.1 When applying for the access right to vehicles, an invoice shall be submitted for the additional access right (monthly fee according to the number of ports).
- 5.3 Upon termination of the justified need for an identity permit or access right (termination of employment or other contractual relationship, termination of activities of a person and/or state agency or company, etc.), the applicant shall immediately notify the Port of Tallinn by e-mail security@ts.ee. The processor closes the access rights.
- 5.4 The holder of the identity permit shall immediately notify security@ts.ee if the company's data in the commercial register changes (name, registry code, address). If necessary, new identity permits and access rights must be applied for.
- 5.5 The access right to identity permits and vehicles expires on the date indicated in the application. The Port of Tallinn will send an automatic notification to the contact person two weeks before the expiry of the identity permit.

6 Applying for short-term access right

- 6.1 Short-term access rights shall be issued for up to 30 days, unless otherwise agreed.
- 6.2 An application for a short-term access right shall be submitted online or in writing at least 24 hours before entering the port area:
 - 6.2.1 In the case of the Old City Harbour to luba.vanasadam@ts.ee;
 - 6.2.2 In the case of the Paldiski South Harbour to luba.paldiskisadam@ts.ee;
 - 6.2.3 In the case of the Muuga Harbour to luba.muugasadam@ts.ee.
- 6.3 The application must contain the following information:
 - 6.3.1 applicant (company applying for the access right);
 - 6.3.2 contact person, e-mail;
 - 6.3.3 the content of the application and the justification for the need to enter the port area, the contractual partner of the company applying for the access right (Port of Tallinn partner) in the port area;

 - 6.3.8 the beginning and end of the access right, which shall not exceed 30 days, unless otherwise agreed.
- 6.4 An identity permit shall be issued for the use of the short-term access right, unless otherwise agreed. When issuing an identity permit, personal and company data together with access rights are entered into the access system. The identity permit shall be returned to the entrance at the end of the access rights.
- 6.5 If the short-term permit is not returned, a reminder will be sent to the customer stating the deadline for returning the permit. The Port of Tallinn shall issue an invoice for the permit not returned by the term in accordance with the costs of the permits listed in Annex 1.
- 6.6 If the duration of access rights granted to the same person on the basis of short-term access rights applications from the beginning of the permit (start date indicated in the application) exceeds the permitted term, the Port of Tallinn has the right to charge retroactively for entry to the port area according to prices of permits stated in the Annex 1.

7 Use of identity permit and access right

- 7.1 The holder of the identity permit is responsible for its lawful use. The use is controlled by a contracted security company and security department in the Port of Tallinn. The Port of Tallinn has the right to suspend or revoke an identity permit or the access right to a vehicle if it is used to the detriment of the interests of the Port of Tallinn or in conflict with the established requirements.
- 7.2 The registration plate of a vehicle must comply with the technical requirements for a motor vehicle and its trailer established based on the Traffic Act and be legible, in particular in daylight from a distance of at least 40 m and at night, at a distance of at least 25 m, must be clean, undeformed, and uncoated, and the attachments must not impair the legibility of the registration plate.
- 7.3 The holder of the identity permit (incl. the passenger in the vehicle) registers the identity permit in the access system when entering and leaving the port area.
- 7.4 The holder of the identity permit must make sure that the passage behind him is closed.
- 7.5 The holder of an identity permit may not:
 - 7.5.1 give the identity permit for use to another individual;

- 7.5.2 allow access to individuals (including vehicles) who do not have access rights;
- 7.6 In the free zone of Muuga Harbour, goods are imported and exported only through access points supervised by the Tax and Customs Board. The Tax and Customs Board performs the inspection of goods and commercial documents in accordance with the customs rules and the work organization of the Muuga Free Zone. The import and export of goods from the entrance B is prohibited.
- 7.7 The holder of the identity permit shall immediately notify the safety department security@ts.ee if the identity permit becomes unusable, is lost or stolen. The processor closes the rights related to the identity permit in the access systems and issues a duplicate based on the respective application. A duplicate shall be issued for a fee in accordance with the cost of the permits set out in Annex 1.
